THE DOG AND HIS SHADOW

Once there was a big dog.

When he got a bone he always hid it.

He never gave a bit to any other dog.

If he saw a little dog with a bone he would say,

"Bow-wow! Give me that bone!"

Then he would take the bone.

One day he took a bone from a little dog.

"The little dog shall not find this bone,"

he said. "I will take it far away.

I will go across the brook and hide it."

Lesson 62

Read this silently and then out loud.

So the big dog ran to the brook.
There was a little bridge over the brook.
The dog ran out on the bridge.
He looked down into the water and thought he saw another dog there.
He thought the dog had a bone, too.
"I will take that bone," said the big dog.
"Then I shall have two bones.
Bow-wow! Bow-wow!" said the big dog.
Then his own bone fell out of his mouth.
It fell into the brook.
The big dog could not get it out.
There was no dog in the water at all!
The big dog had seen his own reflection.
