

HEXAGON SEARCH

Explore outside and around your home to find the shape.
Draw what you found in your search below.

Read this story. Point out examples of the letter P in the story.

The Three Little Pigs

Once upon a time, there were three little pigs who decided it was time to leave home and build their own houses. The first little pig built his house out of straw, thinking it would be quick and easy. The second little pig built his house out of sticks, believing it would be stronger than straw. The third little pig worked hard and built his house out of bricks, knowing it would be the sturdiest of all.

One day, a hungry wolf came along and saw the three little pigs in their houses. He first came to the house of straw and called out, "Little pig, little pig, let me come in."

But the first little pig was smart and replied, "No, no, not by the hair on my chinny chin chin."

So the wolf huffed and puffed and blew the house down. The first little pig ran to his brother's house made of sticks.

The wolf then came to the house of sticks and said, "Little pig, little pig, let me come in."

But the second little pig also replied, "No, no, not by the hair on my chinny chin chin."

So the wolf huffed and puffed and blew the house down. The first and second little pigs ran to their brother's house made of bricks.

The wolf then came to the house of bricks and said, "Little pig, little pig, let me come in."

But the third little pig replied, "No, no, not by the hair on my chinny chin chin."

The wolf huffed and puffed and huffed and puffed, but he could not blow the house down. He tried to climb down the chimney, but the clever little pig had a pot of boiling water waiting for him. As the wolf tried to climb down the chimney his tail was burned by the hot steam from the pot of boiling water. The wolf ran away and was never seen again.